

presents

The Printmaker's Hand

A Juried Show of Northwest Printmakers

to be held at

Northwind Arts Center

2409 Jefferson Street
Port Townsend, Washington

November 6-29, 2009

Prospectus also available at www.corvidaeprintpress.com

Entry Deadline: September 1, 2009

The Printmaker's Hand

Calendar

September 1.....	Entry deadline
October 1	Notifications mailed
October 31	Deadline for receipt of artwork
November 7	Award ceremony/reception
November 29	Exhibition closes

Juror

Pamela A. Morris

Pamela Morris is currently the Associate Director of Augen Gallery's DeSoto location, Portland, OR, overseeing an inventory of prints by masters such as David Hockney, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Motherwell and Andy Warhol, as well as work by regional artists Hibiki Miyazaki, Morgan Walker, Jef Gunn and others. A graduate of Boston University with an MA in Art History, Pamela has been a print enthusiast for over 20 years. Her career has included a graduate internship in the print department of The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Assistant Curator Prints and Drawings at the Vivian and Gordon Gilkey Center for Graphic Arts, Portland Art Museum, volunteering as Print Arts Administrator for Print Arts Northwest, serving on the planning committee for the American Historical Print Collector's Society, and being a contributing author for several Portland Art Museum publications. She has been solo juror for exhibits at Print Arts Northwest and the Portland Art Museum. We are honored to have Ms. Morris as the juror for this exhibit.

Please share her passion for prints at a coffee talk to be held Sunday, November 8 at noon.

Awards

Best of Show $400
Merit Awards (3) $300
People's Choice Award $300